

Institutional Membership Form

Institutional Membership of the Academy of Law and Migration (ADiM) is open to any entity (e.g. Research Centre, Academic Institution, Law Firm, Organization) interested in contributing to the attainment of the goals of the Academy.

Membership is free of charge. However, the Academy requires an “active membership”: by joining ADiM, Institutional Members commit to co-organize and/or host ADiM Workshops, Training Courses or Seminars in accordance with the coordinating body of ADiM. The Institutional Membership includes the possibility for individuals belonging to an Organization to join ADiM as members of that Organization. Individuals may also take part in the operational and research Groups of ADiM. These groups engage in: collective research activities and their dissemination; management of joint educational activities; promotion of doctoral and post-doctoral networks; realization of advanced learning experiences and applied research; monitoring and assessment of the work of legislative and judicial bodies in the field of asylum and migration.

Please send this form by email to accademia.immigrazione@gmail.com.

Your institutional membership will be confirmed within 30 days.
